Design firm wins prestigious awards

March 12, 2009

Northvale- Professional Remodeler magazine has awarded its 2008 best of the best design awards, recognizing outstanding design, craftsmanship and functionality of remodeling projects across the United States.

This year, the “Whole House” and “Kitchen Under $75,000” award was presented to Creative Design Construction & Remodeling of Northvale.

In Qualified Remodeler magazine, the firm won both the “Master Design” and the “Top 500,” in the publication’s 29th annual recognition program. For the complete list of awards presented to Creative Design, go to www.creativedesignconstruction.com.

The award-winning design firm will exhibit at the Mahwah Home Show at Ramapo College on March 20 to March 22. Glen Lumia, president and CEO of the company will be available to speak one-on-one at the firm’s booth and will also speak at the show, both Saturday and Sunday, March 21 and March 22 on the topic of, “What I Wish I Knew Before My Renovation.”

The judging panels for both national publications consists of remodelers, architects, and kitchen and bath designers nationwide. Contestants’ work is submitted anonymously. The winning projects are being featured in the current issues of both magazines.

“We are humbled by the recognition we are receiving for our work,” Lumia said. “We value our industry colleagues’ perspective and are flattered by their kudos. Our design and build team exhibits that the right relationship with our clients results in award-winning work.”

In 2007, the firm was recognized by leading industry organizations such as Remodeler magazine’s “Big 50,” the “Remodeler of the Year” award from Builders & Remodelers Association of Northern New Jersey (BRANNJ), “Outstanding Dealer Award” from Crystal Cabinetry and Qualified Remodeler’s “Top 500.”
